Eligibility for the PYFA Scholarship

Eligible individuals are those who have been accepted into a post-secondary course of study in agriculture (not necessarily leading to a degree). Priority for consideration of awarding this scholarship is established as:

- (A) First priority - Applicant's parents or grandparents are PYFA members.
- (B) Second priority – Applicant is a PA FFA Members.
- (C) Third priority - Applicant is a PA 4-H member.
- (D) Fourth priority - Applicant is a PYFA member seeking to further his/her education in agriculture.

(E) Fifth priority - If no first-time applicants are identified consideration shall be given to applicants who are reapplying for this scholarship during successive years of their educational program.

Primary consideration is given to apparent financial need over academic potential. The scholarship amount is $425 (5% of the $8,500 principle).
